FO(Ab3b

Cuba Critic Fires Away, But President Keeps Cool

WASHINGTON - President Kennedy is standing aloof from the criticism of his Cuba policies flowing down from Capitol Hill.

Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger made this clear yesterday in declining to comment on a blistering attack by House Republican whip Leslie Arends of Illinois.

"We're not going to get into these daily arguments." Salinger

Instead, the President is leav-ocratic leader Mike Mansfield of partisan and political." Montana and Senate whip Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

Sen. Mansfield urged his colleagues Friday to weigh their words carefully before leveling new Cuba charges. He said they might 'help drive the people and the President toward war' through charges "steeped in pollacts.

Sen. Humphrey assailed

ing this more or less to his Cap-speech by Rep. Arends, made in itol Hill lieutenants, Senate Dem- St. Petersburg, as "irresponsible,

> He said Rep. Arends should have voiced his complaints during bi-partisan briefings for congressional leaders at the White House. "The time to be brave is when you are facing the President." Sen. Humphrey said.

But the Mansfield-Humphrey reaction did not in any way deter itics, panic and perversion of Arends. The Republican whip said, yesterday he will continue dy Administration "comes clean" about events leading up to Oct. 14. when aerial photographs proved Soviet offensive missiles were in

CPYRGHT